Prelude (a call to silent meditation) 1 Thessalonians 5: 8-11

But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet. For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him. Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

*OPENING PRAYER

O Giving God, You have entrusted us with who we are and what we have. Too often, we ourselves take credit for our good lives and our earthly possessions. Forgive us when these attitudes seem to define us. Turn our hearts to realize that we are Yours, and everything we have is a gift from you. Our greatest gift is salvation and eternal life given to us by Your Son's death and resurrection. Help us to live our lives as a gift from You, having trusted us to live as children of the light. This we pray through Jesus, saying..."Our Father ,...Amen."
