Prelude (a call to silent meditation) 1 Thessalonians 2:4 & 8

We speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please people but God … so we cared for you. Because we loved you so much, we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well.

Lord, give us the eyes of Jesus to see our neighbors and the strangers we meet. Teach us what it means to love the stranger as we love ourselves. Forgive us for our selfishness, for our silence, for not caring enough for the strangers who come to our communities. Teach us to love and care for the stranger the way You do. We pray in the Name of the One Who taught us saying…Our Father, Who art in heaven…Amen.
